Tips for Approaching Your Job/
Internship Search Process with a Sound Mind:

- Remember that your career journey is unique to you
- Different industries have different processes
- Remember that this is a process, no need to place additional undue pressure on yourself

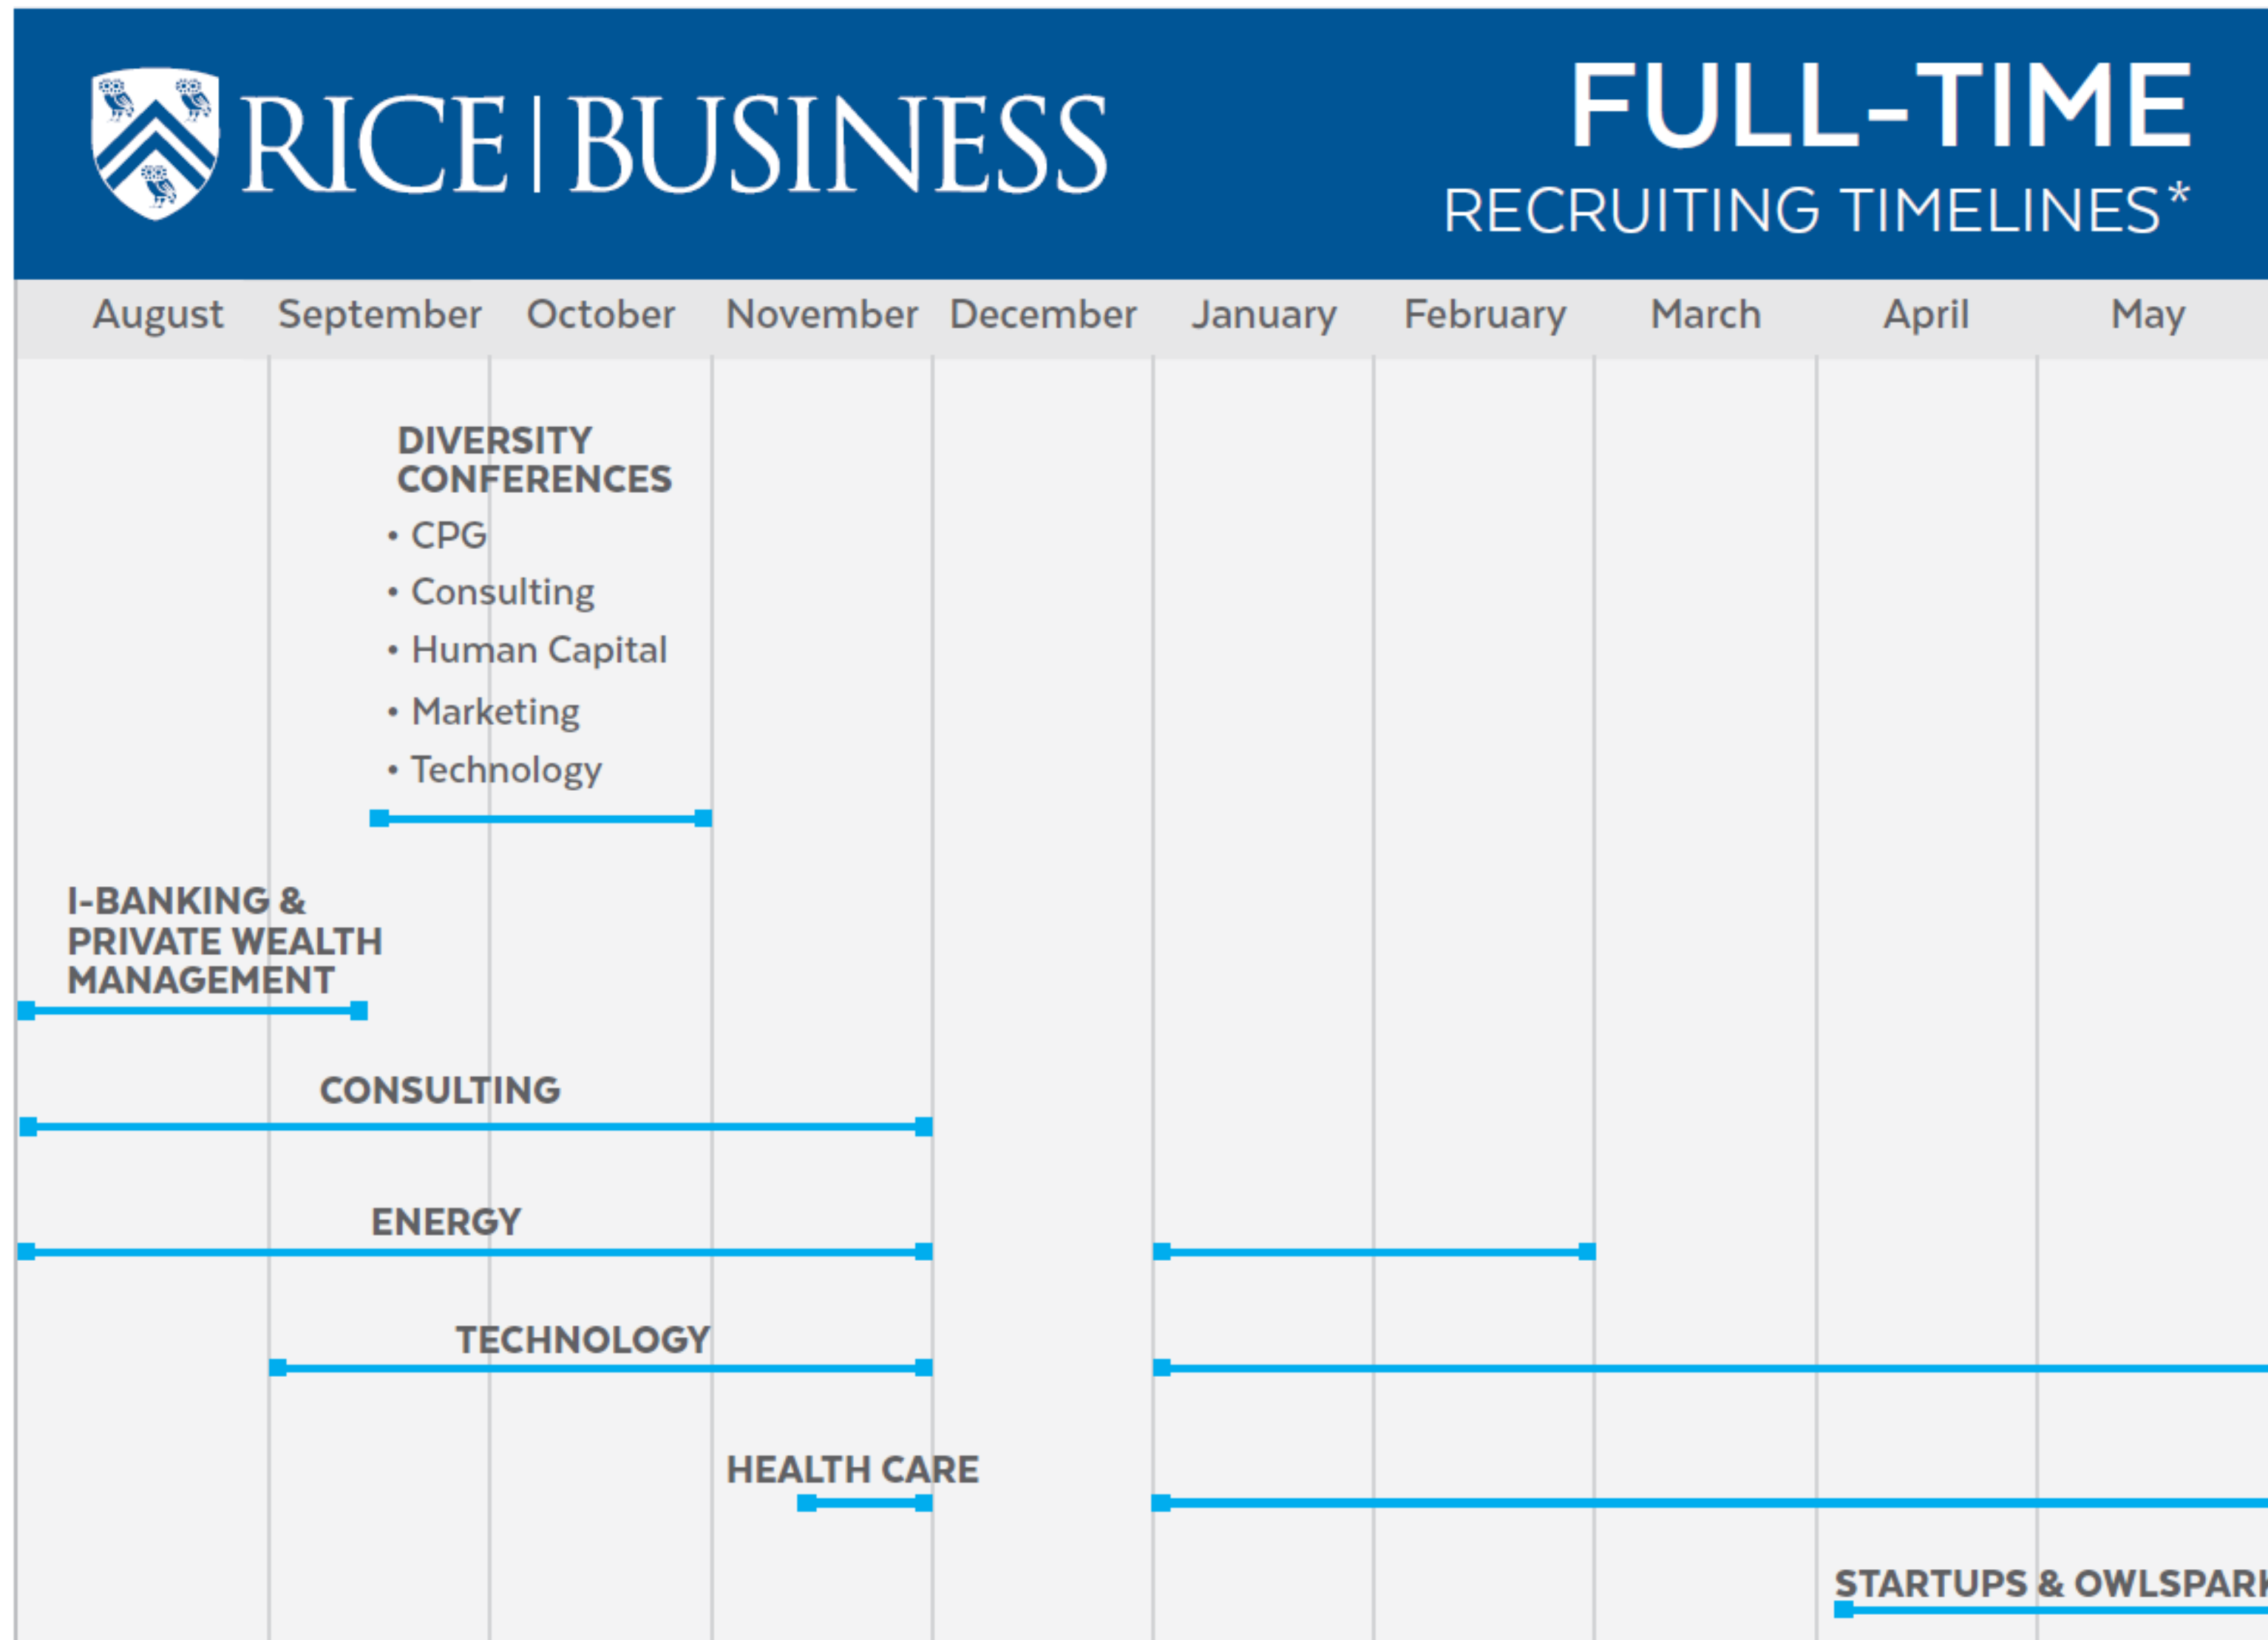

When do companies generally interview?

NOTE: These are general guidelines. Some companies may not adhere to these, so we encourage you to research!

* These timelines are to be used for reference. Please note that the recruiting timelines are general guidelines. Some companies may not adhere to these so do your research!

MARKETING, CPG, & RETAIL

Marketing, CPG, and Retail are very different areas, but overlap in recruiting timelines and expectations. Partner with the Career Development Office to maximize your success when recruiting for these areas.

<https://bit.ly/2sPOKKT>

FIRST YEAR TIMELINE

<h4>AUGUST</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research areas of Marketing, CPG and/or Retail that interest you Read the Vault Guides Join the appropriate student club(s) Attend the CDO Career Conference Determine fit with the role, lifestyle, hierarchy, etc. Start outlining your value proposition 	<h4>SEPTEMBER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refine company research and gain industry knowledge Perfect resume and pitch - develop coffee/phone chat targets to begin networking Attend Diversity Conferences (September - October) - CPG and Retail companies will be at these events and larger organizations with marketing roles will be represented 	<h4>OCTOBER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attend info sessions and continue networking for other opportunities outside of On-Campus Recruiting Talk with second years to learn and avoid mistakes Build behavioral interview skills by scheduling a mock interview with a CDO advisor or use Big Interview Consider attending the CDO Seattle Trek based on the companies engaged that year
<h4>NOVEMBER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Networking continues - these relationships can be crucial to your success Be aware of differing timelines since your interests can span many different industries - some companies will recruit in early fall and others in late spring Participate in Alumni Mock Interviews 	<h4>DECEMBER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue to network and apply to opportunities Consider attending the CDO Austin Trek based on companies engaged that year Take some time and recharge over the holiday 	<h4>SPRING SEMESTER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue to network, apply and interview - based on the breadth of roles and/or industries you are targeting, don't be surprised if you are still applying and interviewing in May Consider attending the CDO San Francisco Trek Report all offers to CDO and update OWL-Careers Didn't get your #1? Refocus on other opportunities and build skills and experiences that add value

SECOND YEAR TIMELINE

<h4>SUMMER</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research companies and continue to build skills If at your target company, have a discussion with your manager about your performance and possibly converting your internship into a full time offer Learn transferable skills to be competitive for fall Continue with networking and interview preparation 	<h4>AUGUST</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you have an offer, report it in OWL-Careers and decide if you want to accept or continue recruiting Talk to your advisor about your fall recruiting strategy Recognize that the recruiting schedule for full time roles will still be unstructured - many companies hire well into the spring and summer 	<h4>SEPTEMBER ON</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continue to network and apply for available opportunities outside of On-Campus Recruiting Interview with companies Talk with an advisor if you need help weighing offers or need to ask for a deadline extension Report all of your offers in OWL-Careers
