

RBWO PRESENTS NAVIGATING CAREER UNCERTAINTY WITH CONFIDENCE

About the Session

Career uncertainty often arises during moments of transition, whether you are considering a pivot, exploring post-MBA opportunities, or stepping into a new role. This Lunch & Learn will focus on practical tools for making aligned decisions, rebuilding self-trust, and moving forward with clarity and confidence.

About the Speaker

Natalia Toledo is a Rice University MBA alumna, former healthcare professional, and former Director at Alvarez & Marsal, where she spent over a decade leading large-scale transformation, change management, and workforce development initiatives for Fortune 100 organizations.

She began her career as a registered nurse in high-pressure clinical environments, an experience that continues to shape her grounded, human-centered approach to leadership, decision-making, and navigating uncertainty.

Today, she works independently as a coach and consultant, supporting thoughtful professionals as they navigate career transitions, build self-trust, and move forward with clarity and intention. Learn more about Natalia's work at natalia-toledo.com
